

1 CORINTHIANS 13:1-13

THE GREATEST OF THESE

The Bottom Line:

_____ is not measured by the prominence of your gift, but by the quality of your fruit.

Love

Agape (Strong's G26)

I. affection, good will, love, _____, brotherly love

II. love feasts

The presence of love is of greater value than:

1. The _____ and _____ of gifts (VS 2)

2. The _____ and _____ of sacrifice (VS 3)

True Christian love can only be established, tested and sustained in the context of _____.

Love's requirement needs not more _____ but more _____. (1 John 3:18)

True Christian love can only come by means of the indwelling _____.
(Galatians 5:16-25)

Spiritual maturity is not measured by the prominence of your gift, but by _____ of your fruit.

Sincere believers empowered by the Spirit of God become an _____ for the Kingdom of God. (VS 8)

The ministry and gifts of The Holy Spirit will _____ in operation until Christ returns and we know as we are known. (Joel 2:28-32, Acts 2:16-21)

Faith, hope and love are _____ in a world of shifting sand. (Romans 5:1-5, Galatians 5:5-6, Ephesians 4:1-6, Colossians 1:3-5, 1 Thessalonians 1:2-3, Hebrews 6:10-12, 1 Peter 1:3-9)

When faith becomes sight and hope becomes reality, the love of God will _____.
(VS 12, 2 Corinthians 5:6-8, 1 John 3:2, Romans 8:24-25)

_____ is not determined by how diligently you work, but by how unrelentingly you love.

Love _____ The House

