

MARK 6:30-56

GOOD TIMES. BAD TIMES

The Bottom Line:
The Kingdom advances through both _____ and _____.

1. The Miracle

If we don't _____, we will fall apart. – Jon Courson

Though in mourning and _____ Jesus chose _____.

The love of Jesus is that of a shepherd zealous to _____, _____ and _____ for all who come to Him. (John 1:12-13)

That which is not enough will always become more than enough when I _____ it into the hands of Jesus.

What am I willing to believe God to do, if I step _____ in the direction of His directive?

Faith is realized when I step confidently toward the _____ knowing God is _____ for me there.

2. The Mayhem

The Kingdom of God does not come by going big and high but by staying in low and _____ to The Father. (Mark 4:30-32)

Whether our storms cease or rage on we can rejoice that “_____” is with us.

Jesus taught the disciples, and us, that life in the Kingdom is a series of highs, signs and wonders along with lows, battles, and storms. However, He is the _____ in both and He is _____ out His plan in both.

What _____ is possible from the testimony of what Christ has done for me?
