

IN CHRIST: WHERE CONDEMNATION ENDS AND LIFE BEGINS

The Bottom Line:

In _____, _____ ends and _____ begins.

Victory is found by looking outside of _____ and looking unto _____.

In Jesus, we have a legal standing of no _____.

In Jesus, you're free from the law of _____ and _____.

The righteous requirement of the law is fulfilled _____ us, not _____ us.

In Christ, we are free to _____ in the _____.

Your mind is the arena. You decide who wins the _____ or the
_____.

In Jesus, you have _____ and _____.

In Jesus, we have the _____ of _____ in us.

What does the Holy Spirit do in you?

- 1.) The Holy Spirit _____ you to Jesus.
- 2.) The Spirit puts in you the desire to _____ Jesus.
- 3.) The Spirit leads you to be more _____ Jesus.
- 4.) The spirit stays at _____ in your _____.

in Jesus we have the _____ of _____.

Life Group Questions:

1.) According to verse 1, what does being “in Christ Jesus” immediately change about a believer’s status?

2.) Where do you most often feel condemned, and how does Romans 8:1 confront that feeling?

3.) What evidence do you see of the “law of the Spirit of life” overpowering the “law of sin and death” in your story?

4.) What question wasn’t asked tonight that should have been?

Notes:
